

Becoming a Member of SPE

1. Go to <https://spe.org/en/join/> to get to this page.

The screenshot shows the top portion of the SPE website. The browser address bar displays www.spe.org/en/join/. The navigation menu includes Home, About SPE, Contact Us, Sign In, and Select Language. The main navigation bar lists Membership, Events, Publications, Training, and Resources. The SPE logo and name are visible on the left, and a search bar is on the right. The main content area features a sidebar with links: Join, Renew, Reinstate, Membership Costs, Dues Payment Options, Member Benefits, and Mail or Fax (Printable Application (pdf)). The main heading is "Join SPE", followed by a paragraph: "SPE is a place for all of today's industry professionals, regardless of experience or course of study. Although engineers are the core of SPE's membership, not all SPE members are engineers. Join as a Professional or Student member." Below this is a video player with the title "Join. Renew. Belong." and a play button.

2. Scroll down to find these links and click Join SPE in the Student section.

The screenshot shows the membership options section of the SPE website. It features two columns: Professional and Student. Each column lists benefits and dues. The Professional section lists benefits such as discounted event registration, special pricing on books, access to the OnePetro technical library, and subscription to JPT. The dues are listed as USD 25 - 130, based on country of residence. The Student section lists benefits such as applying for SPE scholarships, discounts on textbooks, and participation in SPE programs like eMentor. The dues are listed as USD 10 - 15, based on country of residence. Both sections have a "Join SPE" button and a link to "See How to Join SPE as a Professional" or "See How to Join SPE as a Student".
